The Howard Association, in view of the aw ful destruction of human tite, caused by Sexual diseases, and the deceptions practised upon the infortunate victims of such diseases by quacks, several years ago directed their Consulting Surgeon as a charitable act, worthy of their name, to open a Dispensary for the treatment of this lass of diseases, in all their forms, and to give Medical advice gratis, to all who apply by letter with a description of their condition, (age occupation, habits of life, &c.,) and in cases of extreme poverty, to furnish Medicines free of charge. It is needless to add that the Association commands the highest Medical skill of the age, and will furnish the most approved modern treatment. The Directors, on a review of the past, feel assured that their labors in this sphere of benevolent effort, have been of great benefit to the atflicted, especially to the young, and they have resolved to devote themselves, with renewed zeal, to this very important but much despised cause.

MISCELLANEOUS READING.

THE WELL-DIGGER; AN OWER-TRUE BALLAD. BY JOHN G. SAXE. Come listen all while I relate What recently befel Upon a farmer down in Maine.

While digging of a well. Full many a yard he dug and delved, And still he dug in vain; "Alack!" quoth he, "e'en water seems Prohibited in Maine!

And still he dug and delved away, And still the well was dry; The only water to be found Was in the farmer's eye;

For by the breaking of the bank That tumbled from its station, All suddenly his hope was dashed Of tuture liquidation! And now his sands were running fast,

And he had died, no doubt, But that just when the well caved in, He happened to be out! "Aha!-I have a lucky thought" Exclaimed this wicked man-"To dig anew this wretched well

I see a pretty plan:-"I'll hide me straight, and when my wife And eke my neighbors know, What's happened to my digging here, They'll think that I'm below!

"And so to save my precious life, They'll dig the well no doubt, E'en deeper than it was dug at first, Before they find me out!" And so he hid him in the barn

Through all the hungry day. To bide the digging of his well In this deceitful way. But list what grief and shame befel This false, ungrateful man,

And while he slyly watched to see The working of his plan;-The neighbors all with one accord Unto each other said :-"With such a weight of earth above, The man is surely dead.'

And then the wife, with pious care, All needless cost to save, Said-"since the Lord hath willed it so, E'en let it be his grave!" Of paper coin, how vast the power! It makes or breaks us in an hour; And thus, perhaps, a beggar's shirt,

When finely ground, and cleared of dirt,

And printed on by sheet of copper,

Then recompressed, with hand and hopper,

May raise ten noodles to renown, And knock as many nobles down. "Do you know the prisoner, Mr. Jones?," "Yes to the bone." "What is his character?" "Didn's know he had any." "Does he live near you?" "So near that he has only spent five shillings for fire wood in eight years." Why was Pharoah's daughter like a chairmaker? Ans .- Because she got a little prophet from the rushes on the banks. So is
